ORAL JUDGEMENT

Mr. B.R. Shah, learned counsel appearing for the unit has drawn our attention to our order dated 17.3.1997 and has pointed out that by mistake, the figure of the highest turnover of a year out of the last three years was stated as Rs.13 lakhs. He has stated that the actual figure should be Rs.14,89,49,019-35 for the year 1993-94 being the highest turnover out of the last three years. Rounding it of Rs.14,90,00,000/-, learned advocate states that 1% thereof shall be paid in the manner indicated in our order dated 17.3.97.

2. Learned counsel Mr. Shah submitted that now the unit has got authorisation from the GPCB under the provisions of Hazardous Waste (Management & Handling) Rules, 1989, and, therefore, the unit will now be able to dispose of its solid waste in accordance with the rules. Mr. Shah further submitted that the unit is not discharging any trade effluent and part of the effluent is evaporated in the lagoons and part is incinerated. GPCB has also submitted its inspection report in this behalf. In the circumstances, we dispose of this petition with a direction to the unit that the unit shall comply with all the directions given to it in the various orders passed by this Court earlier, as also the directions of GPCB.

3. This petition stands disposed of accordingly.

4. GPCB shall continue to monitor the unit and place before us the reports on 22nd September 1997.
